Remuneration Committee – Terms of Reference

1. Members

- 1.1 The remuneration committee of the Company (the “Remuneration Committee”) should be established by the board of directors of the Company (“Board”) and it should comprise a majority of independent non-executive directors.
- 1.2 The Remuneration Committee must be chaired by an independent non-executive director and appointed by the Board.
- 1.3 The terms of appointment to Remuneration Committee members should be determined by the Board at the appointment date.

2. Secretary

- 2.1 The company secretary of the Company shall act as the secretary of the Remuneration Committee.
- 2.2 The Remuneration Committee may from time to time, appoint any other person with appropriate qualification and experience to act as the secretary of the Remuneration Committee.

3. Meeting

- 3.1 The Remuneration Committee should meet at least once a year.
- 3.2 Due notice should be given for any meeting, unless such notification is waived by all members of the Remuneration Committee. Notwithstanding the notification period, the attendance of the member of the Remuneration Committee at the meeting would be deemed to be treated as the waiver of the required notification requirement.
- 3.3 An agenda and accompanying board papers should be sent, in full, to all directors in a timely manner and at least three days before the intended date of a meeting of the Remuneration Committee (or other agreed period).
- 3.4 The quorum necessary for the transaction of business of the Remuneration Committee shall be two members of the Remuneration Committee, one of whom must be an independent non-executive director.

- 3.5 Meeting can be attended in person or via electronic means including telephone or videoconferencing. The members of the Remuneration Committee can attend the meeting via telephone or any similar communication device (all persons attending such meeting should be able to hear from such member via such communication device).
- 3.6 Resolutions of the Remuneration Committee shall be passed by more than half of its members.
- 3.7 A resolution passed and signed by all members of the Remuneration Committee is valid, and the validity is the same as any resolution passed in the meeting held.
- 3.8 Full minutes of Remuneration Committee meeting should be kept by the company secretary or the duly appointed secretary of the Remuneration Committee and should be open for inspection at any reasonable time on reasonable notice by any director. Minutes of the meeting should record in sufficient detail the matters considered and decisions reached, including any concerns raised by directors or dissenting views expressed. Draft and final versions of minutes of the meeting should be sent to all members of the Remuneration Committee for their comment and records, within a reasonable time after the meeting.
- 3.9 Senior management should be responsible for providing sufficient information to the Remuneration Committee in a timely manner to facilitate the making of informed decisions. The information supplied must be complete and reliable. Where more detailed and complete information is requested from the senior management, the respective director shall make further enquiries where necessary. The committee and individual director(s) should have separate and independent access to the senior management.

4. Meeting attendance

- 4.1 Upon the invitation from the Remuneration Committee, the chairman or chairlady of the Board and/or the general manager or the chief executive officer, the chief financial officer, external advisor and other persons can be invited to attend all or part of any meeting.
- 4.2 Only the members of the Remuneration Committee can vote in the meeting.

5. Annual General Meeting

- 5.1 The chairman or chairlady of the Remuneration Committee or (if absent) the other member of Remuneration Committee or (if absent) its duly appointed delegate should attend the annual general meeting of the Company, handle the shareholders' enquiry on the activities and responsibilities related to the Remuneration Committee.

6. Duties and Powers

The authorities and responsibilities of the Remuneration Committee shall include such responsibilities and authorities set out in the relevant code provisions of the Corporate Governance Code (the “CG Code”) as contained in Appendix C1 to the Rules Governing the Listing of securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (as amended from time to time) (the “Listing Rules”). Without prejudice to any requirements under the Listing Rules and/or the CG Code, the Remuneration Committee shall have the following duties and powers:

- 6.1 to make recommendations to the Board on the Company's policy and structure for all directors' and senior management remuneration and on the establishment of a formal and transparent procedure for developing remuneration policy;
- 6.2 to review and approve the management's remuneration proposals with reference to the Board's corporate goals and objectives;
- 6.3 either (i) to determine, with delegated responsibility, the remuneration packages of individual executive directors and senior management; or (ii) to make recommendations to the Board on the remuneration packages of individual executive directors and senior management. This should include benefits in kind, pension rights and compensation payments, including any compensation payable for loss or termination of their office or appointment;
- 6.4 to make recommendations to the Board on the remuneration of non-executive directors;
- 6.5 to consider salaries paid by comparable companies, time commitment and responsibilities and employment conditions elsewhere in the group;
- 6.6 to consider the level of remuneration required to attract and retain directors to run the Company successfully;
- 6.7 to review and approve the compensation payable to executive directors and senior management for any loss or termination of office or appointment to ensure that it is consistent with contractual terms and is otherwise fair and not excessive;
- 6.8 to review and approve compensation arrangements relating to dismissal or removal of directors for misconduct to ensure that they are consistent with contractual terms and are otherwise reasonable and appropriate;
- 6.9 to ensure that no director or any of his associates is involved in deciding his own remuneration;
- 6.10 to review and/or approve matters relating to share schemes under Chapter 17 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Listing Rules"); and
- 6.11 to consider and implement other matters, as defined or assigned by the Board or otherwise required by the Listing Rules from time to time.

7. Reporting

- 7.1 Without prejudice to the generality of the duties of the Remuneration Committee set out above, the Remuneration Committee shall report back to the Board and keep the Board fully informed of its decisions and recommendations, unless there are legal or regulatory restrictions on it to do so.

8. Authority

- 8.1 The Remuneration Committee should consult the chairman or chairlady of the Board and/or the chief executive officer about their remuneration proposals for other executive directors.
- 8.2 The Remuneration Committee is authorised to request the senior management of the Company to provide any required resources or information related to the remuneration package to perform its duties.
- 8.3 The Remuneration Committee should have access to independent professional advice at the Company's expense if necessary, to perform the responsibilities of the Remuneration Committee.

Remark: the independent professional advice can be sought via the chief financial officer or the company secretary.

- 8.4 The Remuneration Committee should be provided with sufficient resources to perform its duties.

Remark: "senior management" refers to the same persons referred to in the Company's annual report. It is the responsibility of the directors of the Company to determine which individual or individuals constitute senior management. Senior management may include directors of subsidiaries, heads of divisions, departments or other operating units within the group as, in the opinion of the Company's directors, is appropriate.

9. Terms of Reference

- 9.1 These Terms of Reference shall be updated and revised as and when necessary in light of changes in circumstances and changes in regulatory requirements, including those under the Listing Rules.
- 9.2 The Remuneration Committee shall make available these terms of reference by inclusion on the website of the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and the Company's official website for corporate communications.
